TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Re: State v. Jane Spataro

We are the attorneys for Jane Spataro with regard to the difference of opinion between the State of New Jersey and Ms. Spataro regarding the grants Ms. Spataro received as a result of the damage done to her home by Superstorm Sandy. Ms. Spataro believed she was entitled to the grants. The State of New Jersey did not believe she was entitled to the grants.

To settle the difference of opinion with the State of New Jersey, we entered into a deferred disposition agreement whereby the possible charges are set aside or deferred for six (6) months and then dismissed. For Ms. Spataro the date of dismissal is September 21, 2017. There was no obligation to plead guilty. To the contrary, Ms. Spataro plead "not guilty". She has maintained her innocence from the beginning until the end.

Please call if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

EDWARD J. DIMON
